IN THE PAGE LIBEL CASE

Newly Discovered Evidence Throwing Additional Light on Page's Methods of Doing Business.

When twelve men, good and true, de eided upon their oaths that Tex Hea-alm had libeled M. J. Page, an alleged all round swindler and bunco-steerer. THE HERALD accepted their verdict as having been arrived at in good faith. But Tax HERALD did not then believe, me dies it now believe, that M. J. Page was libeled and at once gave notice that a motion for a new trial would be made. That motion was made in Judge Grove's court Wednesday, and upon the showing, consisting of affidavits and perspaper articles, made by Mesers. Taggart & Ganson, attorneys for Tus Humain, and upon due consideration of the case, Judge Grove yesterday ordered

The Alleged Libel

It will be remembered that on Junuary 4 Twe Hanalo printed an exclusive story giving the details of what was believed to be the swindling of an old gantieman named Richmond of Lowell, by M. J. Page of Buffalo, New York. The story was corroborated by the best men of that city. Afterward Page re-turned to Grand Rapids and demanded a retraction. Upon his statement of the alleged swimfling transaction Tun Hanretracted its original publication. Tax Handle had no knowledge of the troth of his defense, but gave him the full benefit of it.

He was not satisfied with that, howor and immediately instituted a suit for $10,000 damages.

Trial of the Case.

The trial of the case is still fresh in were published were swern to be true to the best knowledge and belief of witsenses from Lowell.

It was also shown that Page's reputa-tion in Ludington, where he had oper-ated, was decidedly bad. The presenttion maintained that Mr. Page a porntors in the sale of patent business. The jury at least a part of it avidently believed that Mr. Page was times withful than the unimpeached titurases from Lowell and Ludington. and found a compromise verdict for $300 aggingst Tota Hanalin.

Further Proofs at Hand.

Now that a motion for a new trial has been granted it is proper to say that The limits has indubitable proof that Page is an all round swindler. This proof is in the form of affidavits by wellknown and reliable business men of Alpeon, supplemented by the following self-explanatory article which appeared in the Alpena Pioneer April 8, 1802. A PRETTY SLICK GAME.

BUT IT COULD NOT BE WORKED ON ALPENAITES.

a man cailing M. A. Page of Buffalo came to Alpena He rememented that he was agent for the patentee of an extension ladder, a model of which he had, and that he was sailing the right to manufacture and sell the same. The article had considerable merit and a company composed of Mesers F. C. Folkerts, P. H. Luther. E. O. Avery and others was formed to manufacture it. Page was to receive a certain amount of money down, and a role for $1,000 payable in one year, provided the company's net profits amounted to $5,000. He drew up the note him wif, writing it on a large piece of paper, and it was about to be signed when was discovered that by tearing the sheet into two pieces it became a straight note Page's attention was called to this and he professed innocence of any attempt to defraud, and if the note could be thus torn into two it simply happened to be written in that manner Some of these parties wanted to have the man arrested, but it was thought betto do so, as he left the city today.

Some one chanced to notice Page's exposure at Alpena and called him down. The bottom fell out of the deal at once. Page left on Saturday's boat for Bay City, leaving his watch at the National as security for his hotel bill, he having no money.

PRICES FOR NEW WOOL. The Market Opens Fire Cents Lawer

Than Last Year.

The wool clip of 1836 is beginning to move on the market, a few small consignments having been marketed here during the last few days. The market is exceedingly dull, and local buyers are very cautious in giving out quotations. Advices from Eastern manufacturers to agents are to go slow in making con-tracts for future delivery, as business is unsettled. In view of the uncertain action of the present administration with reference to removing the tariff on wood manufacturers are buying in small quantities to guard against the possibility of having a large stock on hand if the tariff should be removed, thereby reducing the market value of the dominant product. mestic product. Several of the local dealers announced yesterday that they were making no preparations to handle wool this year, as the market is so low that they cannot do business with profit in that line. Last season the market opened here at from 17 to 27 cents per pound, but this year quota-tions range 5 cents lower for both washed and unwashed. A few lots were sold yesterday for 12 and 17 cents for unwashed, and 15 and 22 cents for washed. Wool growers in this section are considerably disheartened over the outlook for discussing of one of their outlook for disposing of one of their staple products.

SAFE CRACKED AT GRANDVILLE M. H. McCoy's Store Burglarized and $130 in Cash Taken.

The store of M. H. McCoy of Grand-ville was burglarized Wednesday night and about $150 in cash and a watch were taken. The work was done by professionals, as a sleek job of safe cracking was done. Entrance was of-fected through the front door by boring hole near the lock and reaching through with a wire and pushing back

The safe was cracked by drilling a hole in the combination plate and with a wire disarranging the works. Notice was given to the sheriff early yesterday morning, and Deputies Davis and Powers visited the place. All diligence will be used to catch the burglar, though there is no clue to follow.
